35c Raise in Tax Rate

6-Day Week GRANTED Firemen by Ordinance

Firemen Circulate Petitions to Raise Tax Rate

City Council Grants 72 Hours Week

BROOM Editor Urges Immediate Draft of City Ordinance

By C. LEON de ARYAN

If the San Diego firemen were to tell you the truth that signing their petitions means raising the city tax rate 35c on a hundred dollar valuation within the next two years, would you sign those petitions? Why do they not tell you the truth? There are people so gullible they would sign petitions to hang themselves, as was demonstrated recently when signers never read what they signed but fell for the glib sales talk of the circulators. The test was made by a psychology professor and his class students.

A fireman approached me in front of the First National Bank on Broadway to sign his petition for a six day week and a raise in pay (10 to 15%). I did not sign. I listened how he was catching suckers, this was his sales talk: "Will you please sign this petition to give us firemen a six day working week?" And people fell for it and signed without reading the petition. An aircraft worker passed by with his union button in his lapel: "Will you sign this petition to give us firemen a base pay?" The young man signed immediately.

Businessmen Afraid to Protest

I contacted a number of businessmen and asked them whether they realized what was going on. "What's the idea of sabotaging the city charter? The council is the designated authority in the charter who has to regulate the hours of work of city employees by ordinance. This thing does not belong in the city charter any more than the United States Constitution should contain an article stating how many hours the firemen in the District of Columbia should work and what pay they are to get".

"I cannot come out against it, because I would be boycotted", was the repuly of every business man I contacted. So I set to work to handle this thing myself. The firemen have boycotted me for the last six years and they have not put me out of business yet. The BROOM continues to stand for what is right, regardless of who is against me. I wrote a letter to the city council calling attention that since the council agrees to the six days working week, they ought to pass an ordinance establishing such a week immediately so the firemen would get all they are entitled to. Many firemen told me privately that they realize that granting them the six days week, in place of the present seven days shifts, is already a raise in pay in itself and that they had cautioned their leaders not to ask for more. Already this grant necesitates hiring additional men to fill in for that extra day which will raise the tax rate 5c in the city.

Rousting Editor Out of Bed at Midnight

No sooner was my letter to the council filed in the city clerk's office as a public document than my telephone rang at midnight and a voice asked me whether I was crazy.

I am used to these labor racket tactics and we must realize that the firemen are a closed shop AFL union. Instead of stopping me, I decided to make sure their racket is stopped.

Next day I got in touch with several councilmen: "Do you realize that the labor racketeers are out to organize the city departments as Dave Beck did in Seattle?" They did not. So I explained to them: "You had no business conceding the request of the firemen to put a measure on the ballot asking the voters for a six hour week by charter amendment. If the voters pass it, then it creates a special privilege for the firemen above all other city employees. It is your business to give them the six days week, since the charter vests you with that authority. If the firemen, besides, get the petitions signed to get a raise in pay over the head of the Civil Service Commission, the charter is torn to pieces. They become an independent department."

"I did not fully realize it", was the reply of the councilman. "I guess you brought out a good point."

"And not only that. The firemen are a closed shop labor union. If they get away with it and place themselves above the council and the civil service in matters of hours and wages, the labor racketeers will tell the police to join the union and get such special treatment also. Then all the city employees will join and give the council and civil service commission the haha. The union will run the city, determine hours and wages and collect an initiation fee from those who want a job as they are collecting now from $50 to $300 from every man who wants to work on federal projects."

"I never realized this angle", said the councilman. "I'll take this up at our meeting next Tuesday before the regular council meeting."

"Now, bear in mind, if the council gives the firemen their six days week, which already raises the tax rate 5c, that's all they are entitled to. They are the best paid department at city hall. Other clerks are in line first for a raise before the firemen got one coming. Once they get their due the people will not sign the petitions or vote for a charter amendment to set them up, special, above the civil service commission in matters of wages. If the firemen get that 10 or 15% wage raise, it means an increase of 8c in the tax rate. Next year all the employees will demand a wage raise on that basis, this will amount to a final 35c increase in the city and if the county is treated on the same basis the rate will go up 60 c and more. Give them the six days week immediately by ordinance and watch what the people will do when they realize the truth of the situation."

City Council Instructs Attorney To Prepare Papers

On Tuesday I appeared before the city council and repeated my advice of giving the firemen their due without any further fuss and to trust in the common sense of the average voter not to sabotage the city charter and place the firemen or any other labor union above the city charter. After some palaver back and forth the city council ordered the city attorney to draw up the necessary papers. Deputy City Attorney Daniels, when asked by the council, said that it would have to be an ordinance.

Lindbergh Is Right

U. S., Britain 'Can't Win Short of War'

Urges Move To Negotiate For Peace

WASHINGTON.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh flatly asserted even a combination of the United States and Great Britain could not win the Europen war "on the present basis" and he urged a "negotiated peace".

The famous flier told the house foreign affairs committee he did not believe "anything short of war or beyond war" would win the struggle unless there was a collapse behind the lines of one side or the other.

San Diego Union Is Wrong

As usual the editor of the San Diego Union cannot read English and does not know what the whole thing is about when he declares in an editorial that "The Colonel Is Wrong" in the following words in the issue of Jan. 24.

"Colonel Lindberg could not have done a more thorough job of adding to his recent unpopularity had he deliberately set out with that objective in mind than he did yesterday in his testimony before the House Foreign Affairs committee. For Col. Lindbergh advocated a negotiated peace and told the committee that the combined strength of Great Britain and the United States would not be sufficient to defeat Hitler.

"To say that the combined resources and manpower of the United States and the British empire, once they are truly united and placed on a war footing, cannot successfully combat the strength and resources of a nation no larger than one of several of our single states, is silly. . . ."

Should Read Tribune-Sun

We would advise the editor of the San Diego Union to get off his high horse and read the Tribune-Sun before writing editorials for the Union. He need not imagine that because the Tribune is competing with the Union it does not state the facts correctly. Our WASHINGTON date line quotation at the beginning of this article is from the TRIBUNE of Jan. 23. Lindbergh says definitely that "on the present basis . . . anything short of war or beyond war" could not win the European war. So why does the Union editor make such an ass of himself and the Union? If the Union wants to go to war, of course, America could defeat Germany if by that time the Russian Jews and the International Bankers do not decide to throw Russia into the war on the side of Germany to bleed Americans to death so the Jewish bankers could buy up our properties and assets at bankrupt sales. That is why this war was started in the first place and is being enlarged and prolonged, that Gentiles may slaughter Gentiles and International Jewry mortgage their assets to pay for the war, then foreclose and own all of Europe and America to boot.

What Lindbergh Said

As for difference in "ideals" between Germany and England, he went on to say, that in the light of history "you won't find so much difference" as has been asserted to exist.

"I believe in complete neutrality".

'Step From Democracy'

He urged that America try to "create an attitude of reception to a negotiated peace, stop shouting down any talk of peace as we have been doing and be open minded to it." More "objective information" on actual conditions abroad, he thought, would "eradicate a great deal of the fear of war current in this country."

Questioned by Rep. Eaton (R-NJ) as to his reasons for opposing the bill, he said:

"First because I believe it a step away from democracy and second, because it's one more step closer to war and I don't know how many more we can take, short of war."

"United States" Encouraged War

Once he asserted that if it had not been for the attitude of the United States, the war would never have been declared and France would not be where she is today.

"Everywhere on Earth" Except U. S.; What About Russia ?

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Esq.,
President of the U. S. A.
The White House, Washington, D. C.
Sir:

Now that you have committed your administration of the Third Term to an unequivocal aim, namely: freedom of speech and expression—everywhere in the world; freedom of every person to worship God in his own way—everywhere in the world; freedom from want—everywhere in the world; freedom from fear—everywhere in the world; will you kindly tell us what steps your administration has taken to insure these four basic freedoms in the Baltic provinces, in Bessarabia, Bucovina and the part of Poland and Finland recently occupied by Soviet troops.

Since your administration of the Third Term is also committed to the defeat of the Axis powers and regimes, will you kindly inform us what steps you have taken to guarantee that with the breakdown of the German army Communistic invasion of Roumania, Bulgaria, Slovakia, Poland and Prussia does not follow. Is Communistic Atheism a new form of freedom of worship?

Does the term "everywhere in the world" include the U. S.? If so why are Christian objectors to the registration for selective service in the armed forces of the U. S. A. being jailed for thus expressing their worship of God in their own way? And they have a valid precedent in the life of Christ Himself.

It might interest you to know that after your announcement of "The best way of dealing with the few slackers or trouble makers in our midst is, first, to shame them by patriotic example, and, if that fails, to use the sovereignity of government to save government"— hundreds of common citizens in San Diego have informed me that they would prefer to be put in the same concentration camp with Col. Lindbergh, Sen. Wheeler, Rush Holt, Verne Marshall, Joe Kennedy and yours truly. It is remarkable how many Americans there are in San Diego who imagine that "everywhere in the world" means the U. S. A. It's funny enough to cry.

Yours truly, C. LEON de ARYAN.

War for Profits, Not "democracy"

What a good thing for San Diego that the Tribune editor is fighting the Union and exposes the war propaganda for "democracy". On Jan. 24 it carried the following revealing paragraph editorially:

"The bald truth is that a German victory, whether achieved by force of arms or by a so-called negotiated peace, would blast all hopes of Great Britain, and the United States, of regaining their former dominating positions, and profits, in world trade. This is the vital factor that Colonel Lindbergh overlooked."

So there it is in a nutshell. Hitler drove the International Bankers out. They run Britain and the U. S. for their profit in world trade. Our children are being drafted, our money is being spent to defend "democracy".

Aid-to-Britain—plow under every fourth American boy.

City Council Grants 6-Day Week

Give bread to those who throw stones at you, enjoins the Christian religion. Yesterday morning I was able to put this doctrine into practice when I appeared before the San Diego city council and urged them to pass an ordinance right away giving the firemen of San Diego a six days work week in place of seven. For some time the firemen have been asking to have their week reduced from three-and-one-half work shifts of 24 hours each, to three shifts. They stay at the fire stations 24 hours on stretch and are called out of bed at each fire alarm whether the fire be in their district or not. In this fashion they do not have a chance to sleep without interruption but are roused out of bed several times each night to stand by their engines.

Ever since I wrote an article six years ago showing that the firemen are a closed shop labor union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor they have boycotted the BROOM. Every fire station cancelled its subscription and they even selected THE BROOM as the only paper in which they do not advertise their annual Charity Ball at Mission Beach. Now I had an opportunity to protect the city from sabotage of its city charter, since the firemen are circulating petitions for a charter election to get a reduction in hours and a 10 to 15% raise in pay. I wrote a letter to the city council urging that the firemen get the reduction in hours immediately so they won't have to circulate petitions, then I spoke yesterday morning at the council meeting and the council ordered the city attorney to prepare the necessary ordinance giving the firemen their six day week. This will save the taxpayers a lot of money. Now the labor racketeers won't have to ring my telephone at midnight to rouse me out of bed and tell me that I am crazy because I asked the council in my letter to grant the six days week immediately to stop the circulation of the petitions which would raise the tax rate in San Diego 35c on a hundred dollar valuation, besides unionizing the police and all city and county employees.

The firemen don't tell you that the result of signing their petition is an immediate raise in the tax rate of 8c with another 27c next year. If the firemen get a raise this year, all employees will demand a raise next year, that means higher taxes for all of us.

BANKERS WORRIED BY DEFICIT

While all of us have troubles and worries taking care of our individual needs and obligations, just figure it out for yourself what the head of banking and investment institutions, of trust and savings companies, have to worry about with the great national deficit staring them in the face. A huge national deficit does not constitute a blessing, not even in disguise; it is an indisguised headache. The government is going to confiscate private property by taxing it to pay for the deficit and heads of institutions who manage the investments of their clients, many of whom have no other income in their old age but the returns from those investments, these men, to whom the clients entrusted their whole future, are working their heads off in an effort to save what they can save and prevent another toboggan and more impoverishment of people who worked hard all their lives.

THE PATH OF EXPEDIENCY

By William Kullgren

Editor The Beacon Light, Atascadero, Calif.

Most of our present day leaders are treading the path of expediency, and that is why there is so much confusion. Just what is expediency in action? It is compromise, or a dodging of the obvious; it is the weapon of the politician.

I could give a long list of men and women who have been acknowledged as leaders in the spiritual or metaphysicial realm, some of them for the past 30 or 40 years, but now that they are faced with reality they are side-stepping, compromiser. Now, if you know the law, you Alice Bailey is a good example. When it came to the acid test she repudiated her own teachings of 30 or more years.

So, if you are treading the path of expediency I would class you as a spiritual politician, a compromiser. Now, if you know the law, you should know that that is a dangerous path to tread in these last days, because this is judgment day. You and I either toe the line, use the ax of truth and let the chips fall where they may, or pay the price. Our job is to bear witness to the truth under every and all circumstances, for, as the Good Book says "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free".

Compromisers Are Appeasers of Evil

Now, if you are a leader of a group you must fearlessly proclaim the truth or else brand yourself as a compromiser (appeaser) and so fall by the wayside; you simply cannot remain in the picture in the next few years. That is the law. It is not an easy path to tread. It means you will lose some of your following perhaps, but you will gain others. You will get support from unexpected sources if you have the courage to bear witness to the truth.

Dare To Be A Daniel ! !

Now this is not written in a spirit of criticism, but in the hope that I can urge you to be steadfast & fearless as a witness for the truth, because only truth can break the chains of superstition, fear and bondage that are holding humanity today. If you take upon yourself the name of 'Christ' nothing less than the position I have outlined will do. I know many leaders in the field who know the truth and yet are afraid to proclaim it. Privately they have said "Kullgren, you are right, I admire you for it but I don't dare take that stand". I am reminded of the little hymn we used to sing when we went to Sunday school:— "Dare to be a Daniel, dare to stand alone; Dare to have a purpose free, and dare to make it known".

We have enough group leaders who believe in The Beacon Light, and believe in its message, so that if they had the courage to sell it at their meetings we would double our circulation. We, in turn, would boost them and more than make up for what few members they might lose. You see, if you are following the path of expediency you are not leading your group at all, they are leading you. Anybody can go with the tide, and that is what you are doing; but it takes courage to go against the tide.

Be God-Fearing Men and Women

There are a few absolutely fearless leaders I know of. Look at the stand that Robert Edmondson has made. It is true he had to wade through hell, but he has made a name for himself and will go down in the history of the nation as a great soul, a fearless leader. It was interesting to watch the election returns in the localities where the various fearless leaders are at work. Almost without exception they voted for Willkie. This was especially marked in the state of Nebraska where Chas. Hudson, editor of "America In Danger", and Chas. Phillips, editor of "The Individualist", are doing their bit. The same was true in Kansas where Winrod has put up a terrific battle for many years. Lack of space forbids going down the line and mentioning them all.

But one of the best examples I know of on the Pacific Coast is the editor of the San Diego "BROOM", Leon de Aryan. As you might expect, he is a fearless Leo. The Leos are the bravest of the 12 signs, symbolized by the lion, the king of beasts. Single handed this man is a tower of strength in the city of San Diego, in fact his influence is felt throughout the nation. He has put the fear of God into the evil doer, the crooked politician, the shyster, and labor racketeers. Single handed he is contributing his share in molding the character & destiny of the city in which he lives. He has won the respect of those he has fought; if they don't love him, they respect and fear him. Friends, a small handful of men like de Aryan can swing the destiny of this nation; can steer us away from the path of war into the path of peace, can put criminals and racketeers of every kind on the run. All it needs is one such man or woman in each community. There is quite a sprinkling of this type throughout the nation today, and yet many of you who call yourselves leaders haven't the intestinal fortitude to stand behind them and to bear witness to the truth they are so bravely proclaiming.

Fate of America in Our Hands

There are enough of you who know the truth, if you but had the courage to bear witness to it, to be able to completely reverse the present trend in Washington. In the realm of politics or statesmanship we have a few fine examples in Washington, and towering among them all is our own Senator, Hiram Johnson. We have much to thank him for. Have you written him congratulating him for the stand he has taken, a truly American stand, throughout his career as a Senator? Sit down right now and write to your Congressman and Senator, and tell them that you are opposed to war, you object to the spending of billions of dollars, and the slaughter of the cream of the manhood of the nation that the house of Rothschild, and its subsidiaries, shall enslave the whole world. Citizenship confers privileges but it also places on your shoulders responsibilities, duties. If this nation is dragged into war it is the fault of the common people. Deluge Congress with your protests. Give support to every man and woman who is truly Christian and truly American. Since the election, through lack of support, many of our fine men and women have thrown up their hands in disgust because of the lack of support, both moral and financial. My friends, if your eyes are opened and you did not aid these men and women, don't complain when you reap what you have sown through neglect.

We get hundreds of letters asking about 'preparation'. Preparation, my friends, or protection rather, must be earned. If you had the wealth of the Rothschilds that would not give you protection during the coming upheaval. Only the armor of truth can give you protection. In the last analysis, protection is not merely a matter of location, it is a matter of spiritual consciousness; and spiritual consciousness or unfoldment, only comes from living the life, obeying the law, bearing witness to the truth under every and all circumstances. Friends, let's close our ranks to the dark forces in their various manifestations, let's merge under the banner of Light, with the Truth as our watchword. If we do that we will be an inspiration to all who contact us, and to the war-torn nations of Europe we will be as a Beacon Light, inspiring them to copy our example, to do likewise. That is the only help that we can really render Europe until they have exhausted themselves through conflict. We must be like the inventor; we must produce a working model of the New Order, that will be built on the foundation of truth, and truth alone.

We Must Be Christians in Deed

Let us throw expediency into the ashcan where it belongs. Let us put new life into those who are fearlessly proclaiming the truth, by giving them moral and financial support. Don't let them march alone, as did the man of Galilee two thousand years ago. In a twinkling of an eye we can change the picture if we carry out this program. Stand behind the man or woman in your community who is trying to make your home town or state a better place in which to live by standing for principles. The names that stand out down through the ages are not those of the politician, nor of the man or woman who trod the path of expediency, but of the men or women who bore witness to the truth under all conditions. Friends, we can all do that; all we need is a little courage, a little backbone, and you will be surprised to find how the path will open up for you; open by invisible forces. I could tell of hundreds of examples in my own life, when everything looked black and impossible, but I said "I dare not compromise, I must bear witness to the truth even though I go down". If you bear witness to the truth you will step into a new world; you will have a power that you never knew before. That is one of the rewards of bearing witness to the truth.

Now our nation has drifted to a dangerous position. You can change the course merely by bearing witness to the truth and carrying out the suggestions in this little article. Let's forget the past; let's all pull together, first to save America from the fate of Europe, and second to bring the nation back onto a sound foundation of principles and fundametals as laid down by the immortal founders; and then busily build up a working model that will inspire the whole battle-torn world. I am placing a big responsibility on your shoulders, or perhaps I should say: I am drawing to your attention your responsibility in these closing days of the old dispensation, the Pisces Age.

MIDDLETON, Iowa,— Having not yet been deprived of our rights of citizenship as we shall be if we are found guilty of a felony as alleged by a grand jury indictment charging my brother Clark and myself with violation of provisions of the peace-time conscription act in our refusal to register for blood-business training under the compulsory selective service act, I am prompted to raise a few questions, answers to which will be eagerly awaited from partisans or supporters of President Roosevelt's policies.

Great Professions and Little Deeds

On several occasions in the past President Roosevelt has with his characteristic fireside "fat" professed unswerving devotion to the democratic processes laid down by the exemplar Thomas Jefferson; but in demanding and forcing the enactment of this conscription act Mr. Roosevelt has applied, as Thomas Jefferson in a letter to John Adams of May 16, 1777, in speaking of the draft even in time of war stated: "Our people, even under Monarchial government considered it the last of all oppressions".

Royal Rats

Regularly our chief executive entertains members of Europe's royal families who have fled their homelands leaving their hard-bitten subjects to clean up the mess they left; it's not that their people aren't far better off without them but it's the old story of rats deserting a sinking ship and now they are scrambling on board our ship and it looks like we might have the cheese they seek.

MARSTON'S PRIVATE STREET

The Marston family have enjoyed long enough a private street to which the general public has no access because Seventh Ave. starts in Balboa Park and stops within half a block.

At present there is a bottleneck of congested traffic on University ave. beginning at First Ave., reaching to Sixth. If the city council were to open up Seventh ave. to University and extend it south into the park road paralleling Sixth ave., traffic congestion at Sixth and University could be alleviated by the side pass on Seventh avenue.

The whole city stands to benefit even though Mr. Marston's geraniums would have to stand some traffic in front of his lawn as every other citizen in San Diego has to put up with. After all our city streets are not private streets and even the NW corner of the Park belongs to all of us, as strange as such doctrine might appear. How about it, Mr. Cooper?

Hughes Has No Proof

Dear de Aryan:

Well, well, well. You have caused me a lot of trouble. I went into a store this morning to buy a hat. The largest ones they had were miles too small and the store keeper said, "What is the matter with you?" I replied, "I have just trimmed, beaten and defeated the fellow who was the best debater in Calif. and naturally I am swelled up a bit. This fellow has never known defeat before and he just does not know what to say."

I must congratulate you in this hour of calamity for I think you did real well in the debate, that is when one considers the cause you represented. You still might win if you can show me that you can control the movements of the planets as Joshua did. Or even give me a sign by changing your cane into a snake. I could be converted if you could even blow down the Boulder dam with a ram's horn.

In spite of it all I still love you and hope to see you in March or April.

Yours, F. C. HUGHES.

People Want Peace, Leaders For War!

By Edmund K. Goldsborough

WASHINGTON,— There must be something fundamentally wrong with a so-called Christian civilization when its leaders virtually admit that the only way of settling the present most terrible world dispute is by fighting to a grim, bloody finish. Needless to say, if this is done, the conquered people, crushed and embittered, eventually will seek revenge—when sufficiently strong again—and still another hideous conflict will ensue. It has always been so; the "eye for an eye" policy, far from settling strife, promotes it.

Nietzche's statement that "the only argument which appeals to certain minds is the clinched fist," certainly can be applied to Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin. On the other hand, it cannot be applied to the people at large. Hasn't it ever occured to political war mongers that the women of Germany, Italy and Japan would welcome peace just as fervently as those of France and Britain? Alas, the peace-loving populace will continue to be led to slaughter, like so many sheep, at the behest of cruel dictators. Would it not be possible to arouse the mass mind from an age-long lethargy? Certainly there is nothing Christian in the spectacle of Germany bombing London or Britain bombing Berlin while innocent women and children perish.

Let us hope that our people will escape the horrors of war. We learn little by experience. A score of years ago, we sought to make the world safe for democracy and succeeded in making it unsafe. Plunging into the bloody waters of the present foreign conflict would amount to madness.

Roosevelt Wants War

Editor: Roosevelt is taking England and this country for a ride. He is interested in an un-Americanism which he hopes will step in and take charge of all warring countries when they become exhausted and bankrupt—that's why he won't listen to proposals of peace from either England or Germany. Bluntly, he's using them to kill off each other. His attitude is that of THE leading nation at war and not as a well-wisher of one of them.

While giving lip service to democracy, the dear people and all that, he's trying to become dictator of dictators, the world's Great I Am—without knowing how.

I still say his war-scare is 100 percent fake.

We'd now be prepared for almost any eventuality if his flunkies hadn't played sewer politics with billions of dollars voted in the past several years to build up our army, navy, air fleet, etc.

If the American people had some way of letting England and Germany know we want them to make peace, each would gladly make peace.

No bona fide American wants either country destroyed—least of all do we want this country bankrupted and turned over to Roosevelt's gang of wastrels and crackpots.

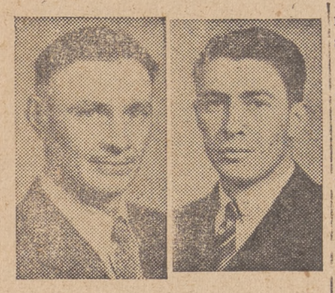
Conscience Faces Certainty Of Punishment



Clark Cornell,30 ;Boyd Cornell, 24

Yes, we are still refusing to register in the land and naval forces of our country. If you, Kind Reader are saying you know why, then, maybe, this article is not written for you As a foundation for making our explanation why we chose facing certain conviction for civil disobedience and a possible penalty of as much as five years in prison and a $10,000 fine, we want to here make of record a snap-shot of our views of the part that government plays in the general scheme of social existence, and the part that the individual understanding or conscience, plays in the the scheme of government:

The Few "Command", The Many "Support" Government

Human existence precedes any and all forms and fashions of government. Whether government does anything else or not, it does serve the purpose of those individuals or of those groups who are in control of its powers. Regardless of how we hear it said that public officials are the servants of the people, we know they are the servants only of the people who are in positions to "give orders", rather than those who must seek and beg favors. The realities of every-day life prove to us that the few command the "powers" of government and the many, in one way or another support the government.

Besides being concerned in a physical existence, the individual has a mental and spiritual existence that not only is susceptible of either satisfactions or of miseries, but that, when properly recognized, completes physical existence with satisfactions that, otherwise, would never be experienced.

Conscience IS Not a Matter of Religion

This mental and spiritual factor is known as "conscience" or awareness. The term conscience has so long been associated with religious preachments that it has come to be popularly thought of as having no connection with just ordinary commonsense. As a matter of fact, however, conscience has no basic relationship either with religious forms or with pious professions. The place where religion comes in, is in putting emphasis upon conscience as a guide to behavior and in stressing the penalties either of ignorance or of maliciousness and of the awards of enlightenment. Just what part religion plays in the formation of character is aside the point of this discussion but one does not have to go far along life's pathway until he observes that if he accepts pious professions or patriotic claims at their face value he will often be defrauded, for action, behavior is the thing of value, "professions" are simply window dressings for the purpose of "selling" something.

Conscience, Behavior, Character

When one's behavior tallies with his own well considered judgment, regardless of the course that either popular approval or of governmental decree orders him to follow, he is walking in the light of his own awareness, of his own conscience; and he proves his character even if he never has even so much as heard of the thing men call religion.

The point we make here is that regardless of how piously he cants or how patriotically he boasts, if, in his own acts, one violates his own well considered judgment because either of his desire for popular approval or of his fear of governmentally imposed punishment, he violates his own enlightenment, he darkens the light of his own conscience and proves his lack of character. This is our foundation statement. Wherein is it in error?

But, Maybe You Question, Is Our Judgment Well Considered?

If you, Kind Reader, can point out wherein our foundation statement is in error, you thereby make our position of refusing to register in the land and naval forces difficult to maintain. But until such fallacies are pointed out, there is nothing left for us to do but to assume that we have a foundation on which to challenge this conscription law, not merely in the courts where, from the outset we have had little hope of success, but in the forum of public discussion, which provokes thoughtfulness.

It seems to us it is but fair for us to assume that such critics as there may be of this course, no less than those who are friendly to it will be willing to give us a fair-minded hearing as we review some of the reasons which constitute the framework of our judgment. We recognize that while our foundation may be sound that we yet have to prove that we can build upon it a structure that will be able to withstand fierce attacks from those who favor the conscription act as it stands.

YOU CAN IMPROVE YOUR conditions by asking for our wonderful new proposition.

National Emergency And Some Suggested Remedies

Editor, The Broom:

Following our numerous conversations, and as a basis for further discussion, I am undertaking to outline my views in this Memorandum No. 1.

There are two very potent threats looming on America's horizon with ghastly imminence; One is the danger of getting completely involved in foreign wars; the other is the danger of our losing, in any case, the social order that ostensibly we should be going to war to protect. These two great perils are, of course, closely related.

We are vulnerable particularly to the inducements of totalitarianism, at present, because the Administration, while piously protesting its allegiance to democracy, has been undermining the faith and confidence in private enterprise that are so essential to our form of social organization. It has been doing this, in the first place, by challenging the propriety and even the morality of private endeavor for "selfish" private ends. In the second place, it has been making it progressively more difficult for people to gain security by means of democratic endeavor. Thus most of the motivating forces which make democracy operate now are being penalized, degraded and slandered. Eventually, people actually will be forced through shame and official compulsion to stop seeking security by means of their own individual initiative. They will have to stop worrying about "that silly little dollar sign" and ask for a kind of security that is guaranteed by a dictator.

Now it is obvious that such a situation as this plays beautifully into the hands of the "warmongers". Uncertainty, fear and insecurity are the psychological factors which will surely get us involved. They must be done away with, but so far the sober-minded legislators and the general public have not implemented their cause with any program for overcoming those factors which are paving the road to war and totalitarianism. The sober-minded must so implement their cause by backing a plan that will not only revive confidence in real democracy, but will also give it the economic impetus and reason-for-being which it is now losing with such distressing rapidity.

The plan which I have in mind rests upon the following major premises:

1. That self-interest is the most powerful moving force in the world, for good or evil, and we should work with it and not contrary to it in any plan for the betterment of our Government and of our people.

2. That the American people, if they have the opportunities, the tools, the backing and the protection they need, will be more productive under our system of private, individual enterprise, for private, "selfish" gain than any other people on earth. That they will naturally develop a social-economic order, based upon human nature, which will be infinitely stronger and harder to destroy than any frenzied, fear-whipped product of tyrannical injustice.

3. That an investment in income-producing values can and should be made to offset the effect of the huge sums our Government has been "investing" in perpetual deficits for the last decade.:

4. That through such investments and correlated methods, the productive capacity of the American people would become practically unlimited.

5. That our Government should make the soundest investment that it possibly can, which is an investment in the productive and inventive capacity of the American people. Such investment should be adequately secured.

6. That it is desirable for the Government to build up a large income, indepedent of taxes.

A Financial Plan

On the basis of these premises a plan has been evolved and its essence is this:

1. That the Government invest in individuals beyond the point of giving them a free education; specifically, grub-stake them to the point where they can put their education and energy to work. As it is, we carry people through their education and then leave them dangling.

2. That the Government do this by expanding existing non-partisan agencies, such as the Federal Reserve System, the RFC, the Patent Office and others, so as to furnish financial backing and expert advice to all persons who have reasonable, sensible and ambitious plans for new enterprise.

3. That the Government, in turn for these services, become entitled to a certain share in the profits of each enterprise it sponsors.

4. That airtight provisions be made to prevent the Government from taking any hand in the management of these enterprises other than to furnish help and advice whenever it is sought voluntarily by the recipient of the loan.

5. That the Government doubly insure its risk by buying income securities on the market much as the RFC does at present as an emergency measure or otherwise. Supplying the British with dollar exchange purchase of the United States, Dominion and other securities, has been suggested as having mutual advantages.

If such a plan seems radical and revolutionary, it is only because we have never thought of letting democracy get fully and completely on the move. The plan I suggest requires only a slight mental re-appraisal of values, emphasizing the practical above the theoretical, and will amount to clearing the rails and giving democracy the green light. With this plan in operation we gain everything. If we continue our present economic and social course we are practically certain to lose everything.

As stated in the beginning of this Memorandum, I am only trying now to outline my views generally. I shall be glad to discuss any or all points in more detail if you wish. Obviously, the whole subject needs elaboration, consultation and refinement, but I believe you will agree that the general principle is sound and meritorious.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN BURNHAM,
Rancho Santa Fe, California.

Radio Talk, Wednesday 7:15 pm, KGB, Jan. 22, 1941

The value of religion lies in its scientific application to everyday life. That is its test. Today the whole world lies torn between fear and brutality; with wars, barbarism and propaganda for war, based on more fear. I have learned early in life that my worst enemy is fear. Fear benumbs the intelligence and makes cowards and slaves of us.

But even fear has a place in the economy of life. I found that the best policy is to fear no man, fear nothing but God. A God-fearing man is a wise man. I do not fear the Nazis; I do not fear the Russians, I do not fear the racketeers, neither do I have fear of the President in peace or wartime, as constitutional executive or as war dictator. I fear neither hunger, poverty nor disease; I am not afraid of jail, baynoets or concentration camps. The only thing I fear is breaking the LAW of God. As long as I comply with the supreme government of the universe, even though I incur the hate, animosity and persecution of the world and its institutions, I will survive, they will lose out in the end. And I don't fear even death itself, for to give my life in obedience to God's Will is to win Life Eternal as Jesus demonstrated it to us when He walked up Golgatha, branded as a criminal because He refused to respond to the call of the plotters of His day to take up arms to fight the Romans and establish a Zionistic government in Palestine.

That there may never be a chance for argument as to whether Faith in God means complete, childlike trust in the ever present government of our Divine Father whom we can fully trust to protect our best interests at all times, Jesus ordered Peter to sheathe his sword, stopped the bleeding of the ear which Peter had slashed as the Jewish guard placed the Master under arrest for treason to the Jewish rulers under Rome, and then refused to defend Himself of the treason charge and jeopardized His life to show that God can be trusted to take better care of us than any worldly force or organization.

The mission of Christianity is to produce a race of people who will rise so high above animal fear of death, who will control their desires, aspirations and methods of living that they will fear no man, nor any horror human kind may inflict on its own, but have as its chief concern obedience to God and to His Will and the eternal LAW. That one give up his life gladly in the service of God, as the Master did, but offer no violent resistance, is the essence of Christian regeneration of mankind.

Evil Destroys Itself

Where men, women and children fear no man, but return good for evil, no invading army can conquer, for such people are so superior in every respect that the invaders soon will turn to them for instruction, since the invaders are subject to all the ill effects of ignorance, poverty, disease and strife which is the natural concommittant of ignorant and brutal lives. Only minds who have risen above fear of death, above fear of men, who are conscious of the divine presence and the supremacy of God, the Father, the Creator of this world and Parent of our own lives; only such minds can produce a society where peace, prosperity and happiness become the order of the day. To breed such a type of people you and I have come here on earth. Now is our opportunity to awaken to the Omnipotence and the Omnipresence of God, our Father. We receive the power to live from His Infinite reservoir of Life. His Intelligence is absolute and supreme. His Love for us surpasses any effort the congress, the president and his advisors may put forth on our behalf. To avail ourselves of this everpresent Love and Intelligence, naturally we must tune ourselves to it, otherwise how could we contact it? We must devote our energies to follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ who so plainly stated the purpose of His life and the purpose of your life and mine, namely to fulfill the LAW of God but not break it.

In this fashion fear has no hold over me. War and the threat of war does neither scare nor confuse me. If there is anything I should fear and prepare against is that I fail in faith in God, in the recognition that He is my protector, is Almighty, Everpresent and merely suffers fools to break His LAW that they may learn from the experience of consequences how useless and wasteful it is.

Moses vs. Jesus

It was Moses who set the precedent of breaking the Ten Commandments, destroying the tablets on which they were written on Mt. Sinai and ordering the Sons of Levi to chop the heads off three thousands Jews because they had worshipped the Golden Calf. To counteract this bad example of the lawgiver who breaks this very laws he expounded, Jesus was sent into the world to give His own life and blood to teach a sinful world not to follow the example set by Moses. And as a result there was a clash in Jerusalem between the followers of Moses and the Redeemer. He gladly followed His own teachings to the letter and rather gave His life to save the World from fear of death and faithlessness to sacred covenants, solemnly entered into, than yield one iota of the principle He represented. His covenants are not scraps of paper, are no campaign promises to be broken right afterwards under the specious plea of changed conditions. Contrary to example set by Moses, Jesus demonstrates that we must have implicit Faith in God, realize His Omnipresence and Omnipotence every moment of our lives & keep His Commandments; that no emergency is so great that His Wisdom and Love could be set to naught so that we would be justified in breaking His LAW, as Moses did with the Ten Commandments and the tablets they were written on. Jesus never treated the tablets as scraps of paper and the solemn promises He gave as empty phrases to please gullible minds. He brought Divine Reality into our lives as the guiding force to peace, liberty, security and it is the supreme force, once you awaken to its far reaching presence and comply with the duties and responsibilities it places upon us.

The Christian who loves God by obeying His commandments finds peace and security, liberty and wisdom. This peace is not to be had by murdering other people's children and laying waste their lands. This freedom is the freedom which comes through self-discipline and self-mastery, for he who conquers self is greater than he that conquered a city. It is the true freedom and without it peace, security, happiness and wellbeing are impossible here on earth.

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

The passing of Dr. John H. Tilden, of Denver, in his 90th year, is an event of consequence to all the people, not only because of his being a fundamentalist in health and economics, but also because he demonstrated his health theories in his life and its mature termination.

Ingersoll

Tilden was an apostate physician and surgeon of high attainment—and the son of one. But discovering the futility of medicine and surgery, he built a new theory as to health and its reversal, which he refused to call disease.

He steered a middle course, between extreme of psychology in mental or religious science, such as the denial of disease and death, and the extremes of materialism in materia medica.

When he quit the profession, he began to teach health—his theory being that health must be attained by correcting bad habits, mostly of eating; that doctors and drugs only aggravate ill health.

The Tilden magazine, "The Stuffed Club", and later the "Philospohy of Health", gave a wide spread to his philosophy. His writing was as powerful as his personality, and it is hoped that Mrs. Tilden may find a way to perpetuate some phases of his work.

JOYOUS THOUGHT

We'll meet again. O Joyous thought !
Beyond, where battles are not fought,
Where love and beauty only reign
There, my beloved, we'll meet again.

We'll meet again. There is no end.
We only change until we blend
In the great harmony of peace
Where finally we are at ease.

Thus while we part let's not forget
That there is nothing to regret.
Although our dream has come to naught
We'll meet again, O, joyous thought.
